John Frederick Kensett, Hudson River Valley from Fort Putnam, 1861, Oil on canvas, New-York Historical Society, The Robert L. Stuart Collection, the gift of his widow Mrs. Mary Stuart, S-42

This week, Museum Stories goes diving beneath the waves. Watch the short video and make your own submarine!

LOOK

This is a picture of the ocean. Have you been to the ocean? Does the beach in Vero Beach look like this? Look at all the big rocks! Do you want to climb on the rocks in this picture? What other kinds of things could you do at the beach in this picture? Would you build sandcastles? Go swimming? The water looks cold, brrr!

READ

This week, the book recommendation is Rub-a-Dub by Linda Ashman. Go on a fun ride under the water in a submarine. The story presents wonderful underwater creatures in playful rhyming sentences. Glimpse all the bright and vibrant aquatic life in the ocean!

MAKE

Follow along with the video for instructions to make your own submarine to explore the ocean.
