

Film Studies are series of five-week courses of films selected from the finest in classic and contemporary cinema presented with critical context and moderated class discussion.

In 2020, Film Studies will be offered in an online, streaming format for viewing in the comfort of your home.

In 2021, Film Studies will continue with its streaming format, as we also welcome patrons back to the museum for in-person viewing.

Streaming from a computer, tablet or phone:

- Enrolled participants will receive an email from dgiannino@vbmuseum.org 1 hour prior to your class time on Tuesdays.
- This email will contain a link, which will be active 30 minutes prior to your class time (either 1pm or 6:30pm). Once you click on the link at the appropriate time, you will be directed to a live stream on your computer, tablet or phone on a website called Boxcast. Nothing else needs to be done to view the pre-film lecture, and film if you intend to view on your computer, laptop or phone.

Streaming to your tv via Google Chromecast:

- Enrolled participants will receive an email from dgiannino@vbmuseum.org 1 hour prior to your class time on Tuesdays.
- This email will contain a link, which will be active 30 minutes prior to your class time (either 1pm or 6:30pm). Click on the link and once the stream starts playing, you will see the "cast" icon at the bottom of the screen (near the volume adjustment). Turn on your tv and click on the cast icon to begin playing the live stream on your tv.

Streaming to your tv via Roku, Amazon Fire Stick, or Apple tv:

- Prior to the first class, enrolled participants should turn on their tv and Roku, Amazon Fire Stick or Apple tv. Search for "Boxcast" and add it to your channels. Once you have added Boxcast to your channels, search within Boxcast for Vero Beach Museum of Art.
- Every week, 30 minutes prior to the start of class on Tuesdays (1pm or 6:30pm), the live stream will start. You can watch the lecture and film via the live stream.
- Enrolled participants will also receive an email from dgiannino@vbmuseum.org 1 hour prior to your class time on Tuesdays. This email is not necessary for streaming via Roku, Amazon Fire Stick or Apple tv.
