

The image shows the interior of a large, ornate church. The architecture features a series of high, vaulted arches supported by tall, white columns. The floor is covered in a black and white checkered tile pattern. Rows of dark wooden pews are arranged on either side of a central aisle. At the far end of the church, there is an altar with a large, dark painting above it. The ceiling is decorated with intricate white and gold carvings. The overall atmosphere is bright and majestic.

Core Values

Excellence, Integrity, Exceptional Quality, Highest Professional Standards, Pride, Commitment, Diversity, and the Strong Belief that the Visual Arts and Humanities make a tremendous difference in our lives.

Brady M. Roberts
Executive Director/CEO

Sandy L. Rolf
Chair, Board of Trustees

2016 was a year of embracing change, and change is good. It keeps us relevant and encourages growth and progress. From the retirement of Lucinda Gedeon on December 4, 2016, to the national search and hiring of our new Executive Director, Brady Roberts –change is moving us forward and keeping us fresh. Innovations are also fueling our growth. They help us to appeal to new members, and to delight our already loyal patrons and donors with memorable exhibitions, events and programs.

The new fiscal year began over the summer of 2016. An active Summer Art Camp, evening adult classes, and a special 4-week program titled Literacy in Motion, led the way. Our partnerships with the School District of Indian River County and The Learning Alliance included hosting a Summer Institute for teachers over a week in July and our arts integration Teacher Professional Development programs in the fall.

The summer exhibition Out of this World: The Art and Artists of NASA provided the perfect platform and inspiration for all summer activities. In KidZ ArtShops and Summer Art Camp, participants created their own “spacescapes,” designed UFOs and space invaders. Adult programming also benefited with a special 4-part summer Film Studies course focused on early movies about outer space and the sci-fi genre they influenced. Two free presentations on Saturdays explored the History of the U.S Space Program, and Women of NASA with speakers associated with the Kennedy Space Center.

The major fall exhibitions presented three very diverse and appealing artforms. The Museum was thrilled to have the opportunity to present selections from the Manoogian collection, titled The American Spirit. Inclusive of the art and artists of the Hudson River School, the American Impressionist movement and the contemporary Trompe l’oeil tradition, the exhibition celebrated the Manoogian’s long-term commitment to collecting exceptional examples of American art. The Schumann Gallery housed a unique exhibition of work by David Drake, an enslaved African potter, a legendary figure in the history of American southern ceramics. The Titelman Gallery featured wonderful landscape paintings by artist Bruce Marsh, whose subtle brushwork captures natural and manmade environments.

In the autumn, we moved into the public phase of the Museum’s Endowment Campaign: Invest Today, Shape Tomorrow, Impact Forever. The Campaign had many dimensions including the opportunity for patrons’ children or grandchildren to purchase and paint ceramic tiles for installation on the “Community Impact Wall” in the entrance of the Art School, as well as bricks for donors to inscribe names, phrases or pictures to replace the walkway on the southwest side of the building. These initiatives enjoyed celebratory unveilings for donors, and as of June 30, 2017 the Museum’s Endowment stands at $28.8M with an additional $6.1M in pledge payments and future legacy gifts. Thus, ensuring the financial stability of this wonderful institution long into the future.

The winter season kicked off with the Museum’s annual gala benefit, The Triple Crown, complete with mint juleps and champagne in the Derby Tent enjoyed by 373 guests. The ever popular Art In Bloom luncheon sold out with 480 guests attending. Three great monographic exhibitions opened: Deborah Butterfield: Horses, a powerful representation of Butterfield’s distinctive horse sculptures in both traditional and non-traditional art media; The View Out His Window (and in his mind’s eye): Photographs by Jeffery Becton, eleven large-scale color pigment prints from digital montages; and Larry Kagan: Object/Shadow, shadow-art derived from abstract metal sculptures.

Our education programs remain a significant component of our community-based offerings. The International Lecture Series sold out for the third year running, with 2,324 attending. Featured speakers included best-selling author Bill Bryson; Director of the National Museum of Women in the Arts, Susan Fisher Sterling; specialist paint expert for royal palaces and houses, Patrick Baty; and a behind-the-scenes insight into the world’s greatest concert hall by Clive Gillinson, Executive and Artistic Director at Carnegie Hall. The Museum offered a broad range of adult public programs including the Distinguished Professor Series, Seminars, interpretive dance performances by Ballet Vero Beach, and Film Studies. Our partnerships with the Atlantic Classical Orchestra and the Vero Beach Opera, our Lunch and Learn presentations and docent tours were all exceptionally well-received.

The permanent collection expanded this year through gifts and purchases. The Museum received several generous gifts of art, including Christo and Jeanne-Claude’s hand-collaged lithograph, Orange Store Front Project, a gift of the children of Jean P. Messex; an etching by John Taylor Arms, a gift by Toni and George Hamner; a series of 14 sculptural forms in turned wood by the living American Artists Carol Amy Roth, Robert Kopeck, Richard Carner, Arthur Jones and John Mascoll, a gift of Andrew Barr; and a wonderful oil on canvas, Nude with Blue Eyes, by William Glackens, a gift of Robert and Eleanora McCabe. The generosity of the Museum’s Athena Society, whose mission is to build the Museum’s collection by acquiring significant works of art, allowed us to purchase two major art works: Peter Blume’s, Study for South of Scranton and Candida Höfer’s, Sankt Maximilian Düsseldorf I.

In April, we received a significant grant award from The Hearst Foundations to fund the creation of an interactive children’s space, providing a dedicated area for the Museum’s rapidly growing youth and family programs. The space will open to the public in January 2018.

Once again, the Museum’s philanthropic women’s group, The Circle, made a major contribution to our education programs, voting by ballot to fund the Intergenerational Art Program, and a portion of Artful Engagements. We are most grateful to these 133 women who, by collective majority choice, support our on-going Community Impact programs.

The Museum relies upon the support of volunteers throughout the year and they are vital to the success of many of our programs. This year volunteers graciously devoted over 13,000 hours to servicing the Museum. For their generosity, we are eternally grateful.

There were a number of staff changes during the year, in particular the retirement of Lucinda (Cindy) Gedeon on December 4, 2016, after 12 years of steering the Museum to many great successes. Under her leadership the Museum developed into a regionally and nationally-known institution. Our programs grew in number and quality and the facility expanded with the addition of a state-of-the-art exhibition and collections wing, new exhibition space, and two sculpture parks. Cindy was responsible for bringing major exhibitions to Vero Beach as well as growing the Museum's collection with significant works of art. Under her tutelage, education programs expanded and Museum/community partnerships flourished, including those with the Atlantic Classical Orchestra, Ballet Vero Beach, The Learning Alliance and the School District's work on the Moonshot Moment, to name just a few. The Museum's endowment has more than doubled during her tenure, and her outstanding vision in shaping the institution resulted in national re-accreditation in 2008, and the prominent position as the principal visual arts facility on the Florida's Treasure Coast. In addition, Jay Williams, who joined the Museum as curator in 2011, retired on October 28, 2016. During the course of his five-year tenure, Jay organized several major exhibitions and significant individual artist shows, and assisted with all aspects of the exhibition process from research and publications to lender negotiations and ultimately installation.

As we said a fond farewell to colleagues, we happily welcomed others, including Emily Constantine, to her position as Museum Store Manager, and her new part-time weekend staff Allison Brown, and Melinda Watts. In addition, Nolia Alsfeld stepped into a full-time position in Member Services, and Larry Terrell, Ralf Gokert, Patricia Perri to part-time roles in Facilities. Our security team announced Darwin Urane as Assistant to the Director of Security, and welcomed back Lloyd Reinert as well as Matthew Cresta, Eugene DeStefano and Donald Hart to the security team.

Brady Roberts joined us from the Milwaukee Art Museum, bringing 25 years of experience to the Museum and, along with an enthusiastic staff and Board of Trustees, has already begun work on a strategic plan designed to create a vision for the next 10 years.

With change everywhere, we are focused on being the region's finest art Museum to everyone we see and serve: our visitors, donors, sponsors and patrons. We maintain high standards in every aspect of our business and once again are pleased to report an operating surplus for the year. We encourage you to review our audited financial statement contained herewith for more details. At the same time, we remain true to our purpose of offering our residents and friends a world of opportunity. For our part, we take pride in making investments in our community by staying true to our core values – education, art and humanities programs, and presenting quality exhibitions and adding significant works of art to our permanent collection.

It is an exciting time to be involved with the Museum and we invite you to join us on this amazing new journey.

HOLMES GALLERY

OUT OF THIS WORLD: The Art and Artists of NASA June 25 – September 25, 2016

Out of this World: The Art and Artists of NASA opened June 25 in the Museum's Holmes Gallery and featured 71 works of art from the collection of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), housed at Kennedy Space Center. Since the NASA Art Program was founded in 1962, the agency has commissioned and collected hundreds of works of art to represent the agency's primary mission: "to reach for new heights and reveal the unknown so that what we do and learn will benefit all humankind."

The American Spirit: Selections from the Manoogian Collection October 15, 2016– January 8, 2017

Since the 1970s, Richard and Jane Manoogian have collected some of the most celebrated examples of historical American Art, including Hudson River School, American impressionist, and trompe l'oeil paintings featured in past exhibitions at the Vero Beach Museum of Art. From October 15, 2016 through January 15, 2017, Museum visitors had a rare opportunity to glimpse the full breadth of the Manoogian collection.

Deborah Butterfield: Horses January 28 – June 4, 2017

Deborah Butterfield is a renowned sculptor, known for her horses created from materials ranging from found wood, reclaimed steel, and cast bronze. This exhibition brought together representative examples of her equine forms in various sizes from various periods, some meant to rest on the floor and others to be exhibited on pedestals.

SCHUMANN GALLERY

Masters of Studio Glass: Selections from the Permanent Collection June 4– September 11, 2016

Masters of Studio Glass offered a dazzling cross section of American glass artists whose works are a study in contrast. Beginning with Dominick Labino and Harvey Littleton, known as the father of the Studio Glass movement, the exhibition examines the discipline through works that celebrate the medium and material itself, as well as showcase the revival and innovation of traditional techniques. The works in the exhibition also illustrated a variety of glass-forming technologies beyond traditional glassblowing.

David Drake: Potter and Poet September 24– December 18, 2016

The Vero Beach Museum of Art organized the first major museum exhibition of pottery by the enslaved African potter best known as "Dave," since the influential survey exhibition mounted by McKissick Museum at the University of South Carolina in 1998. David Drake, known simply as "Dave," was an enslaved African American who created utilitarian pottery vessels ranging from one quart to more than 40 gallons. While enslaved artisans like Dave contributed significantly to the development of American craft traditions, most remain nameless and unrecognized. Dave is known to us because he inscribed his signature and dates on many of his jars, jugs, and other ware.

Toots Zinsky, Viaggio, 2015, filet de verre (glass thread), 9 1/2 x 17 1/2 x 12 1/4 inches, Museum Purchase with funds provided in part by the Lori Burns Memorial Fund and the Museum's Acquisition Fund. 2015.4

Jeffery Becton, Blue Chest, 2012, Pigment print from digital montage, 20 x 22 inches, Courtesy of the Artist and Bates College Museum of Art, Lewiston, Maine

The View Out His Window (and in his mind's eye): Photographs by Jeffery Becton (from Bates College Museum of Art, Lewiston, Maine) January 7– May 7, 2017

The View Out His Window (and in his mind's eye) featured 11 large-scale photographs by Jeffery Becton that are actually photo-montages that bring the viewer into a dreamy, imaginary world. A photographer who plays with pixels the way a painter manipulates oil on canvas, Becton makes images that demand contemplation. Combining the familiar and unfamiliar, his photographic montages are full of mystery and a sense of the unknown.

Bruce Marsh, Causeway Rain II, 2013, oil on linen, 12 x 40 inches, Courtesy of the artist

Larry Kagan, Oxford, 2011, steel and shadow, 39 x 35 x 13 inches (sculpture and shadow), Courtesy of the artist

TITELMAN GALLERY
From Exhibition to Collection: Selections from the Permanent Collection
May 21 – September 4, 2016

The summer exhibition in the Museum’s Titelman Gallery focused on works of art that have entered the Museum’s collection after being exhibited in one-person or group shows organized in-house. In this 30th anniversary years, it is appropriate to take stock of the significant works of art by living artists that have enriched the permanent collection during the past decade. VBMA maintains a long-standing commitment to collecting the work of contemporary, often mid-career, artists.

Paintings by Bruce Marsh
September 17, 2016 – January 2, 2017

Bruce Marsh’s landscape paintings deftly capture the sensuous qualities of the natural and manmade environment. The 17 paintings that were featured in this exhibition are the product of his long-term interest in the relationship between perception—how we see external reality—and representation—translating optical reality into two-dimensional works of art.

Larry Kagan Object/Shadow
January 14, 2017 – May 21, 2017

Larry Kagan’s sculpture simply defies description. Viewed without special lighting, his works of art appear to be abstract metal sculptures. The works of art are completed when strong lighting at a specific angle strikes the sculpture, creating shadows that depict objects, animals, and figures. Shadow-art derives primarily from the novelty of the silhouette. This exhibition featured 16 ‘magical’ installations.

STARK GALLERY
Selections from the Permanent Collection
July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017

This varied exhibition offered visitors an opportunity to enjoy the diversity and excellence of the Museum’s permanent collection. Visitors viewed works of art by well-known painters such as Edward Redfield, Willard Metcalf, Jane Peterson, Jim Dine, Leon Kroll, Edward Henry Potthast, Isabel Bishop, as well as, the work of prominent sculptors including Henry Moore, George Segal, Marc Sijan, and Karen LaMonte.

ALICE AND JIM BECKWITH SCULPTURE PARKS
Selections from the Permanent Collection
July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

The Alice and Jim Beckwith Sculpture Park on the Museum’s south side and its northerly counterpart, the Beckwith North Plaza Park, continued to exhibit works by George Rickey, Deborah Butterfield, Tom Otterness, Haydn Llewellyn Davies, John Henry, Hanneke Beaumont, David Hayes, Jaime Plensa, and other important examples of outdoor sculpture from the Museum’s permanent collection.

INTERNATIONAL LECTURE SERIES
Since its original founding in 1982, the Museum’s flagship public program has attracted the finest guest speakers in the arts and humanities. 35 years later, the International Lecture Series continues to serve its capacity audiences with live seating in the Holmes Great Hall and simulcast seating in the Leonhardt Auditorium.

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Trustees
Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc., which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc. as of June 30, 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Museum's June 30, 2016 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated October 25, 2016. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended June 30, 2016 is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2017

(1) Organization

The Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc. (the Museum) is a not-for-profit Florida Corporation. It was formed to plan, establish, construct, operate, and maintain a museum and cultural arts center in Vero Beach, Florida. In addition to its collection of important American and international works of art, the Museum offers a wide variety of educational, studio art, humanities programs, and a diversity of quality exhibitions.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Museum classifies resources for reporting purposes into three net asset categories. Those categories include unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted net assets as follows:

Unrestricted – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily Restricted – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Museum and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently Restricted – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that establish an endowment under which assets are restricted to investment in perpetuity.

(b) Revenue Recognition

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions are recognized as revenue in the period in which the contributions (including promises to give) are received. Donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending upon the nature of the restrictions. When the terms of a restriction are met, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. Contributions for which the terms of the restrictions are met within the same fiscal year as received are reported as unrestricted revenue. Contributions of services that create or enhance non-financial assets or require specialized skills are recognized as revenue in the period in which the services are provided.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Museum considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents for purposes of the statement of cash flows exclude cash and cash equivalents designated for endowment or restricted for long-term purposes.

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

(d) Fair Value Measurement

Investments are reported at fair market value. Income earned is either unrestricted and reported as increases in unrestricted net assets or, in accordance with certain donor stipulations or applicable law, is restricted to specified purposes or future periods and is reported as increases in temporarily restricted net assets. Absent donor stipulations, gains and losses are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is temporarily or permanently restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law.

The Museum follows the authoritative guidance for accounting for fair value measurements. The guidance establishes a framework for fair value and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. It also requires that assets and liabilities carried at fair value be classified and disclosed in one of three categories based on the quality and reliability of that information. A description of the levels within the hierarchy and applicability to the Museum's assets are as follows:

- Level 1 – Fair value is based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible to the Museum for identical assets.
- Level 2 – Fair value is based on significant inputs, other than Level 1 inputs, that are observable either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term of the asset through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 inputs include quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets, quoted market prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets, other than quotable inputs.
- Level 3 – Fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs. Examples of valuation methodologies that would result in level 3 classification include option pricing models, discounted cash flows, and other similar techniques.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

- Mutual funds – Valued at the quoted closing prices in an active market.

(e) Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market, and is carried on a first-in, first-out basis. Inventory consists of items available for sale in the Museum's store and supplies held for the art school.

(f) Art Collections

The Museum accounts for the acquisition of its art collections as expenditures in the statement of activities in the year in which the art objects are acquired. Accordingly, the Museum's art collections acquired through purchase or contribution are not reflected as assets in the statement of financial position. Proceeds from deaccessions of art objects in excess of purchases are recorded as increases in temporarily restricted net assets and are restricted for the acquisition of other art objects.

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

The Museum maintains a comprehensive fine arts collection. The collection is used for the purposes of exhibition, education, study, research, publications, and loans to other museums. The collection is kept under curatorial care, including its conservation. The entire collection consists of hundreds of artifacts, of which various items are displayed at any given time. It includes paintings, works on paper, sculpture, outdoor sculpture, photographs, and video art. Each of the items is catalogued for educational, research, and curatorial purposes and activities verifying its existence and assessing its condition are performed continuously.

(g) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased by the Museum are recorded at cost. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, the Museum reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. The Museum reclassifies temporarily restricted net assets to unrestricted net assets at that time.

The building and improvements are depreciated over 25 to 50 years using the straight-line method. Furniture, fixtures and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over 5 to 15 years.

(h) Contributed Services

Unpaid trustees and volunteers conduct a significant portion of the Museum's functions and activities during the year. The value of this contributed time is not reflected in the accompanying financial statements since the volunteers' time does not meet the criteria necessary for recognition.

(i) Income Taxes

The Museum is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Museum has unrelated business income resulting from sales from the Museum store that may result in taxable income. The Museum has available at May 31, 2017, approximately $79,000 of unused operating loss carryforwards that may be applied against future unrelated business income and that expire in 2032 through 2037. The Museum's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. The Museum's open audit periods are 2014-2017.

(j) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

(k) Concentrations of Credit Risk and Uncertainties

The Museum has not experienced any losses from maintaining cash accounts in excess of federally insured limits, and management believes that it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash accounts.

The Museum invests in the market, which is subject to a level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of these investments. It is reasonably possible that changes in market conditions in the near term could materially affect the value of the Museum's investments reported in the financial statements.

(3) Receivables

Unconditional promises to give at June 30, 2017 are as follows:

Other pledges receivable are discounted to the present value of estimated future cash flows using a risk-free rate of return. (6) Endowment Investments

The Museum's endowment consists of a fund established for a variety of purposes. They include both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. As required, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Museum maintains its endowment investments in conformity with the Florida Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA). The Board of Trustees of the Museum has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Museum classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the historical dollar value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the historical dollar value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Museum in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA or unless there is a deficiency in the endowment fund as described below.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Museum considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- The duration and preservation of the fund
- The terms of the endowment agreement, which document the wishes of the contributor
- The purposes of the Museum and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- General economic conditions
- The possible effects of inflation and deflation
- The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- Other resources of the Museum
- Current investment policies

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

The endowment investment objective of the Museum is to create sufficient net income to permit the building, related structures and operation of the Museum to continue to serve the needs of the community in keeping with the purpose for the Museum as set forth in its Articles of Incorporation. The investment goals for the funds of the endowment are: meet the payout requirements of the endowment, provide sufficient liquidity to meet distribution requirements, and earn superior returns relative to capital market measures, including broad market indices as well as funds with similar objectives. Investment goals and performance are to be computed net of investment management fees. The Museum has a different spending policy for the different types of endowments:

- Cultural Grants - the distribution of income shall be for operating costs and maintained in accordance with state guidelines.
- Endowment Fund – General Purpose - income is to be reinvested to achieve maximum growth until such time as the Trustees decide to distribute income. The percent of income to be distributed will be limited to 4% (4.5% beginning July 1, 2017) annually of the prior 20 calendar quarter average market values of each fund.
- Named Endowments - income shall be distributed in accordance with the Museum's Endowment Fund spending policy based on the purpose established by the donor.

The intended long-range goal of the endowment fund is to provide 20% to 30% of the operating fund of the Museum.

The Museum maintains its Florida Cultural Endowment Program Funds (three State Matching Shares plus the local matching funds) in separate investment accounts with a principal value at June 30, 2017 of $2,824,783.

The Museum also maintains an unrestricted investment account for future grant qualifying matches, with a market value of $465,149 at June 30, 2017, which is included in other endowment funds on the accompanying statement of financial position.

Notes to Financial Statements

(7) Beneficial Interest in Remainder Trusts

The Museum is the beneficiary of several split-interest agreements consisting of charitable remainder unitrusts. The contributed assets are held in trust by a third party trustee and are included in the statement of financial position as beneficial interests in remainder trusts. In accordance with the agreements, the trustees distribute to the donor's designee income generated from those assets until such time as stated in the agreement (usually upon the death of the donor or the donor's designee). The Museum will be able to utilize that portion of the gift in which it has an interest upon the death of the respective beneficiary and the trustee will distribute to the beneficiaries their respective remainder interests.

At the time of the gift and adjusted annually thereafter, the Museum records contribution income and the related beneficial interest asset. The initial gifts and annual adjustments are calculated based on estimated mortality rates, discount rates representative of time periods involved, and other assumptions.
