Sandra L. Rolf
Chair, Board of Trustees

The 2017-18 fiscal year has been an exceptional one for the Vero Beach Museum of Art. With an invigorated and enthusiastic staff and Board of Trustees, we successfully accomplished a number of objectives that were critical to the Museum's continued progress in the pursuit of improved educational programs, excellence in exhibitions, and greater visitor engagement. We are proud to celebrate the many accomplishments at all levels featured in this report.

STRATEGIC PLANNING

During the summer of 2017, a year-long process of developing a new strategic plan to guide the activities and direction of the Museum began. A working group of the Board of Trustees led by Stephen Coley began the process in the spring. In July a series of offsite retreats involving the entire Museum staff occurred. Over the following months, the Executive Director and senior management worked diligently with strategic consultant, James Cooke, to host ten different focus groups involving more than 250 participants representing a broad cross-section of the Vero Beach community in the planning. The final document was published in early 2018 and will be reviewed and modified relative to new opportunities and challenges. The strategic plan is available on the Museum's website.

SUMMER PROGRAMS

Summer programs in 2017 offered a dynamic summer art camp serving more than 650 children (4-16yrs), an equally popular adult evening class schedule, and our second Literacy In Motion program in conjunction with The Learning Alliance and the School District of Indian River County. We also launched a Summer Film Nights program focusing on the work of Wes Anderson with three of his iconic films introduced brilliantly by local filmmaker/director Xaque Gruber. All three film evenings were well received with attendees sipping wine and shopping in the Museum Store. In addition, attendees took advantage of the later gallery hours to view the two summer exhibitions, Dan Gunderson: A View from Above and Watershed Contemporary Landscape Photography on loan from Telfair Museum, a powerful exploration of landscape photography from the past forty years.

FALL PROGRAMS

September was impacted by the aftermath of Category 2 Hurricane Irma. Remarkably all three late summer exhibitions opened on time despite this disruption. Fortunately the Museum experienced little damage. Our dedicated and well-trained staff executed the emergency plan as needed and worked together to secure the building, artworks on loan, and collection.

The Museum opened the fall with a great exhibition of illustrations by Maurice Sendak, whose children's masterpiece Where the Wild Things Are touched generations of families. The Holmes Gallery was transformed into a magical Wild Things-themed, interactive wonderland, including Max's room and boat. Visitors came in droves to enjoy this stunning and theatrical show. The exhibition was such an enormous hit that every public school, and many charter and private schools, scheduled fieldtrips to the Museum, making it one of our most well-attended shows in recent history. It was a great moment of collaboration with our partners in the Moonshot Reading Rocket, a true convergence of art and literature. In the fall, we also presented vintage photographs by Ansel Adams, Alfred Stieglitz, Walker Evans, Dorothea Lange and others, in the exhibition Masters of American Photography. As a result of the generosity of a loan from Richard Manoogian, we were thrilled to show an epic cycle of 19th century American paintings, The Voyage of Life by DeWitt Boutelle after Thomas Cole in the Schumann Gallery.

WINTER PROGRAMS

Highlighting the winter season was the opening of Medieval To Metal: The Art and Evolution of the GUITAR; Paul Outerbridge: New Color Photographs from Mexico and California 1948 - 1955; and Shadow and Light: The Etchings of Martin Lewis. All exhibitions received an enthusiastic response from our community.

The new children's interactive space, the Art Zone, opened after a renovation project funded by a major grant from the Hearst Foundations. Programs in the Art Zone are generously supported by the Warren and Virginia Schwerin Children's Education Fund. The space opened to great acclaim and amazing attendance, providing a much needed space for our growing family audiences.

The permanent collection also expanded this year through gifts and purchases, which are detailed on page 9, our Collections and Acquisitions page. The generosity of the Museum's Athena Society, whose mission it is to build the Museum's collection with significant works of art, enabled us to acquire two works: Marguerite Zorach's The Golden Orb (1921) and Joseph Stella's Joy of Living (1940). We also have a long-term loan and promised gift, Big Ben by Childe Hassam, courtesy of Whitney and Betty McMillan.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS & EVENTS

The Museum's educational programs were another source of great pride this year with a robust and sold out season of International Lecture Series, enthralling Film Studies Series as well as engaging Seminars, Opera Studies and our ever popular partnership with the Atlantic Classical Orchestra's Chamber Music Series. There were 5,749 participants in these programs.

Students in the Museum Art School's ceramics classes benefited from the removal of the aged "Ginny" kiln, and four underperforming and old electric kilns, with the installation of three new commercial grade Skutt digital electric kilns for bisque firing and a large commercial grade 325sq foot gas reduction kiln to replace the "Ginny" kiln. This was made possible in part by an enthusiastic fundraising effort made by our students, faculty, members, and donors for which we are incredibly grateful. This past year the Museum Art School served 2,035 students, and continued to provide an enriching educational experience to the community.

Museum events included the annual GALA 2018: The Rock of Ages, Art In Bloom Luncheon, and Concerts in the Park. New this year, Eccentric Glamour: The Art of Fashion with Simon Doonan, attracted more than 200 guests, who enjoyed an entertaining presentation by Simon Doonan, creative ambassador-at-large for Barneys New York followed by a cocktail reception and a trunk show by Llobycats in the Laura and Bill Buck Atrium. Funds raised by these events help underwrite programs in all departments of the Museum. Thanks go to all of the volunteers and attendees that help make these events a success.

ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES

We have continued to strengthen and communicate the VBMA brand regionally and this year introduced a streamlined new logo, connecting our well-established appeal with a more contemporary and integrated look for the Museum. Our second initiative was to improve our online presence and accessibility with a new responsive website that launched at the end of June 2018.

There were a number of staff changes in the course of the year. We happily welcomed Danielle Johnson, as our new Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art; Bethany Burt, as Graphic Designer and Communications Specialist; Kelley Williams as Major and Planned Giving Officer; Barbara Dunn as Store Manager, and her new part-time weekend staff, Doris Fowler and Diane Greto. In addition, Marissa Burge, Barbara Dorvee and Fae Kopacka were hired to serve part-time roles in Visitor Services. Our facilities team strengthened its part-time crew with Herb Allen and Maritza Reyes; and security announced Shelia Elder as Assistant to the Director of Security, as well as David Brown, Susan Brown, John Elder, Michael Fitzgerald and Marsha Thornburg to the security team. In February 2018, after a six-month national search process, we welcomed Sara Klein to our senior staff as Director of Education.

During fiscal year 2017-18, the Board of Trustees welcomed Katherine (Kay) Desai, Thomas O. Ryder, and Matilde Sorensen as new members. Stepping down from the board are Herbert F. Aspbury, James H. Carney, Peter C. Coxhead, Susan Dobbs, Emily Reeves Tremml, and Barbara (Pinky) Regan. We wish to thank them for their numerous contributions to the success of the Museum during their tenure.

Many thanks also to our wonderful volunteers who gave 11,646 hours working as docents, support for administration operations, staff in the Museum Store, and help with family programs including Art Zone, Artful Storytime, and KidZ ArtShops.

The financial statements are contained herein. Our staff has worked diligently to achieve the operating surplus but it is also in part to our loyal members and donors who continue to actively support our many programs and events throughout the year.

The Museum is an organization that is always moving forward, and we have much success to build upon since its foundation in 1986. We intend to capitalize on our new strategic vision and brand refresh, and on the many exhibitions and programs that make the VBMA such a vibrant and exciting place to visit.

The Board of Trustees and I wish to sincerely thank all those involved, including our talented staff, dedicated volunteers, generous sponsors, donors and patrons – in making this such an important and memorable year in the Museum’s history.

HOLMES GALLERY

June 17 – September 3, 2017

Dan Gunderson's forty ornate color photographs were on view in the Museum's Holmes Gallery. Gunderson began this new series of photographs as a result of his interest in popular youth culture. Gunderson collected hundreds of toy figures, which he carefully employed to construct each composition before photographing them. When Museum visitors examined each of his brightly hued images, they discovered dozens of small plastic toys arranged in kaleidoscopic patterns.

50 YEARS, 50 WORKS, 50 REASONS Maurice Sendak: The Memorial Exhibition

September 23 – December 30, 2017

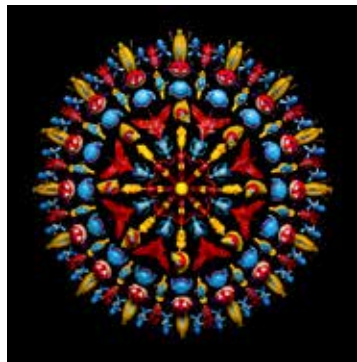

50 Years, 50 Works, 50 Reasons, Maurice Sendak: The Memorial Exhibition was organized to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Sendak's classic Where the Wild Things Are. The exhibition featured original illustrations for the book, which won the prestigious Caldecott Medal for pictorial excellence in 1964. The exhibition also incorporated a selection of works from the many other picture books that Sendak illustrated throughout his career and examples from his work as a stage and costume designer.

Medieval To Metal: The Art & Evolution Of The GUITAR

January 27 – May 6, 2018

Organized by the National GUITAR Museum, Medieval To Metal: The Art & Evolution Of The GUITAR traces the design and history of the world's most popular musical instrument, from lutes and ouds to classical acoustic and modern electric instruments. In addition to forty varied and historic instruments, the exhibition included illustrations and photographs of well-known GUITAR players of the last century and their instruments.

DeWitt Boutelle after Thomas Cole: The Voyage of Life From the Manoogian Collection

September 16, 2017 – Jan 7, 2018

This exhibition featured a suite of four paintings by itinerant painter DeWitt Clinton Boutelle (1820 – 1884). The four works represent an allegory of man's earthly journey (Childhood, Youth, Manhood, Old Age). Boutelle was commissioned to paint these works as a full-sized copy of the Thomas Cole's celebrated Voyage of Life. The combined signature on the paintings, with both Boutelle and Cole's names, shows the close connection to Cole's original suite.

Paul Outerbridge: New Color Photographs from Mexico and California, 1948 – 1955

January 20 – June 3, 2018

A pioneering master of color photography, Paul Outerbridge explored the quirky intersection of two cultures in his photographs of Mexico and California during the 1940s and 1950s, gathered together for the first time in this exhibition. Outerbridge documented tradesmen, tourists, musicians, and bathing beauties in the glowing colors of Kodachrome. Outerbridge took full advantage of the relatively new medium of color photography to give his subjects added vitality.

Watershed Contemporary Landscape Photography

June 3 – September 10, 2017

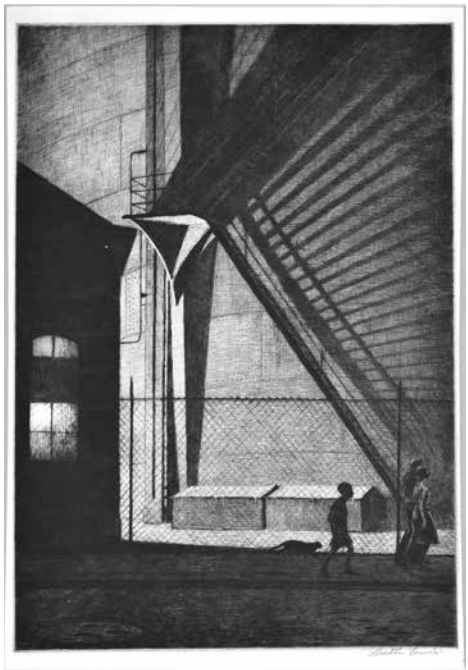

Uniting select works from Telfair Museum's extensive permanent collection, this exhibition featured 38 photographs by 26 artists. Watershed: Contemporary Landscape Photography was a thematic exhibition of landscape photographers. When artists such as Jerry Siegel, Richard Misrach, and Anthony Goicolea photograph the landscape—even one altered by human hands—they evoke the mystery and sometimes strange beauty to be discovered there. Others, including Jack Leigh, William Christenberry, and Lisa M. Robinson, communicate the timelessness and dignity of the landscape.

Masters of American Photography
September 16, 2017 – January 14, 2018

Masters of American Photography featured works by Ansel Adams, Margaret Bourke-White, Walker Evans, Dorothea Lange, Edward Steichen, Alfred Stieglitz, and other master photographers. Representing the history of photography in America from the 1880s through the 1980s, this exhibition, organized by the Reading Public Museum in Pennsylvania, addressed themes such as portraiture, landscape, cityscape, still life, motion capture, and photojournalism. Included were classic images like Dorothea Lange's Migrant Mother - Nipomo, California and Ansel Adams' Monolith, the Face of Halfdome, Yosemite National Park, California.

Shadow and Light: The Etchings of Martin Lewis
February 3 – May 13, 2018

Shadow and Light: The Etchings of Martin Lewis brought together fifty-six prints by Lewis. Together they captured his aesthetic throughout his entire career, from his initial forays in printmaking in the 1910s; through the master works of the 1920s, '30s, and '40s; and ending with his last known print in 1953. Lewis was particularly drawn to night scenes, presenting people on their way to and from urban entertainments, talking on street corners, or standing alone with the busy city around them.

In 1999, the Museum’s “Ginny” kiln was built by world renowned ceramicist/raku artist Harvey Sadow from Jupiter, FL, and our own talented artist and faculty manager Sean Clinton, over a two-week period based on a Lou Nils kiln design. (Little known fun fact - the “Ginny” was named after the late and long-time instructor Ginny Stocker who taught ceramics at the VBMA for over 15 years!)

During its 18 years in operation, the Ginny kiln was fired about 20 times each year to a temperature of approximately 2,300 degrees F over a 12-18 hour period. She worked hard and was a faithful companion as the Museum grew its ceramics department. But while still operable, Ginny was an aging kiln that no longer met code restrictions and was in need of repair.

After extensive research and fundraising, the Museum purchased a Bailey Custom PRO32 Shuttle gas kiln. The Bailey kiln has a 32 cubic foot interior firing space, and is more fuel efficient (and built to code). The Museum also added two new production grade electric kilns as well as safe and efficient venting systems, and improved wiring. All of these improvements have enabled us to continue to build our successful ceramics program.

Director of Facilities, Art Jewett, unloads the new Bailey kiln

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Trustees
Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc., which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2018, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc. as of June 30, 2018, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Museum's June 30, 2017 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated October 25, 2017. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended June 30, 2017 is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

(1) Organization

The Vero Beach Museum of Art, Inc. (the Museum) is a not-for-profit Florida Corporation. It was formed to plan, establish, construct, operate, and maintain a museum and cultural arts center in Vero Beach, Florida. In addition to its collection of important American and international works of art, the Museum offers a wide variety of educational, studio art, humanities programs, and a diversity of quality exhibitions.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Museum classifies resources for reporting purposes into three net asset categories. Those categories include unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted net assets as follows:

Unrestricted – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily Restricted – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of the Museum and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently Restricted – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that establish an endowment under which assets are restricted to investment in perpetuity.

(b) Revenue Recognition

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions are recognized as revenue in the period in which the contributions (including promises to give) are received. Donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending upon the nature of the restrictions. When the terms of a restriction are met, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. Contributions for which the terms of the restrictions are met within the same fiscal year as received are reported as unrestricted revenue. Contributions of services that create or enhance non-financial assets or require specialized skills are recognized as revenue in the period in which the services are provided.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Museum considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents for purposes of the statement of cash flows exclude cash and cash equivalents designated for endowment or restricted for long-term purposes.

(d) Fair Value Measurement

Investments are reported at fair market value. Income earned is either unrestricted and reported as increases in unrestricted net assets or, in accordance with certain donor stipulations or applicable law, is restricted to specified purposes or future periods and is reported as increases in temporarily restricted net assets. Absent donor stipulations, gains and losses are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is temporarily or permanently restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law.

The Museum follows the authoritative guidance for accounting for fair value measurements. The guidance establishes a framework for fair value and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. It also requires that assets and liabilities carried at fair value be classified and disclosed in one of three categories based on the quality and reliability of that information. A description of the levels within the hierarchy and applicability to the Museum's assets are as follows:

- Level 1 – Fair value is based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible to the Museum for identical assets.
- Level 2 – Fair value is based on significant inputs, other than Level 1 inputs, that are observable either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term of the asset through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 inputs include quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets, quoted market prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets, other than quotable inputs.
- Level 3 – Fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs. Examples of valuation methodologies that would result in Level 3 classification include option pricing models, discounted cash flows, and other similar techniques.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

- Mutual funds – Valued at the quoted closing prices in an active market.

(e) Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market, and is carried on a first-in, first-out basis. Inventory consists of items available for sale in the Museum's store and supplies held for the art school.

(f) Art Collections

The Museum accounts for the acquisition of its art collections as expenditures in the statement of activities in the year in which the art objects are acquired. Accordingly, the Museum's art collections acquired through purchase or contribution are not reflected as assets in the statement of financial position. Proceeds from deaccessions of art objects in excess of purchases are recorded as increases in temporarily restricted net assets and are restricted for the acquisition of other art objects.

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

The Museum maintains a comprehensive fine arts collection. The collection is used for the purposes of exhibition, education, study, research, publications, and loans to other museums. The collection is kept under curatorial care, including its conservation. The entire collection consists of hundreds of artifacts, of which various items are displayed at any given time. It includes paintings, works on paper, sculpture, outdoor sculpture, photographs, and video art. Each of the items is catalogued for educational, research, and curatorial purposes and activities verifying its existence and assessing its condition are performed continuously.

(g) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased by the Museum are recorded at cost. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, the Museum reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. The Museum reclassifies temporarily restricted net assets to unrestricted net assets at that time.

The building and improvements are depreciated over 25 to 50 years using the straight-line method. Furniture, fixtures and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over 5 to 15 years.

(h) Contributed Services

Unpaid trustees and volunteers conduct a significant portion of the Museum's functions and activities during the year. The value of this contributed time is not reflected in the accompanying financial statements since the volunteers' time does not meet the criteria necessary for recognition.

(i) Income Taxes

The Museum is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Museum has unrelated business income resulting from sales from the Museum store that may result in taxable income. The Museum has available at May 31, 2018, approximately $110,000 of unused operating loss carryforwards that may be applied against future unrelated business income and that expire in 2032 through 2038. The Museum's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. The Museum's open audit periods are 2015-2018.

(j) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes to Financial Statements

(k) Concentrations of Credit Risk and Uncertainties

The Museum has not experienced any losses from maintaining cash accounts in excess of federally insured limits, and management believes that it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash accounts.

The Museum invests in the market, which is subject to a level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of these investments. It is reasonably possible that changes in market conditions in the near term could materially affect the value of the Museum's investments reported in the financial statements.

(3) Receivables

Unconditional promises to give at June 30, 2018 are as follows:

	2018				2017 Total

Current pledges receivable consist of contributions due within one year and are recognized at net realizable value. Other pledges receivable are discounted to the present value of estimated future cash flows using a risk-free rate of return. The Museum anticipates collection on all receivables; therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been established.

The Museum launched a Capital Campaign during the year ended June 30, 2010. As of June 30, 2018, donations totaling $9,204,633 have been recorded, of which $20,853 are outstanding pledges receivable.

(6) Endowment Investments

The Museum's endowment consists of a fund established for a variety of purposes. They include both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. As required, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Museum maintains its endowment investments in conformity with the Florida Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA). The Board of Trustees of the Museum has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Museum classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the historical dollar value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the historical dollar value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Museum in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA or unless there is a deficiency in the endowment fund as described below.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Museum considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- The duration and preservation of the fund
- The terms of the endowment agreement, which document the wishes of the contributor
- The purposes of the Museum and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- General economic conditions
- The possible effects of inflation and deflation
- The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- Other resources of the Museum
- Current investment policies

VERO BEACH MUSEUM OF ART, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

The endowment investment objective of the Museum is to create sufficient net income to permit the building, related structures and operation of the Museum to continue to serve the needs of the community in keeping with the purpose for the Museum as set forth in its Articles of Incorporation. The investment goals for the funds of the endowment are: meet the payout requirements of the endowment, provide sufficient liquidity to meet distribution requirements, and earn superior returns relative to capital market measures, including broad market indices as well as funds with similar objectives. Investment goals and performance are to be computed net of investment management fees. The Museum has a different spending policy for the different types of endowments:

- Cultural Grants - the distribution of income shall be for operating costs and maintained in accordance with state guidelines.
- Endowment Fund – General Purpose - income is to be reinvested to achieve maximum growth until such time as the Trustees decide to distribute income. The percent of income to be distributed will be limited to 4.5% annually of the prior 20 calendar quarter average market values of each fund.
- Named Endowments - income shall be distributed in accordance with the Museum’s Endowment Fund spending policy based on the purpose established by the donor.

The intended long-range goal of the endowment fund is to provide 20% to 30% of the operating fund of the Museum.

The Museum maintains its Florida Cultural Endowment Program Funds (three State Matching Shares plus the local matching funds) in separate investment accounts with a principal value at June 30, 2018 of $2,927,789.

The Museum also maintains an unrestricted investment account for future grant qualifying matches, with a market value of $489,183 at June 30, 2018, which is included in other endowment funds on the accompanying statement of financial position.

Notes to Financial Statements

(7) Beneficial Interests in Remainder Trusts

The Museum is the beneficiary of several split-interest agreements consisting of charitable remainder unitrusts. The contributed assets are held in trust by a third party trustee and are included in the statement of financial position as beneficial interests in remainder trusts. In accordance with the agreements, the trustees distribute to the donor's designee income generated from those assets until such time as stated in the agreement (usually upon the death of the donor or the donor's designee). The Museum will be able to utilize that portion of the gift in which it has an interest upon the death of the respective beneficiary and the trustee will distribute to the beneficiaries their respective remainder interests.

At the time of the gift and adjusted annually thereafter, the Museum records contribution income and the related beneficial interest asset. The initial gifts and annual adjustments are calculated based on estimated mortality rates, discount rates representative of time periods involved, and other assumptions.

Beneficial interests in remainder trusts as of June 30, 2018 consist of the following:

	Temporarily Restricted	Permanently Restricted	Total
Estimated gross proceeds	$ 88,984	996,503	1,085,487
